

Turner County Christian Learning Center
302 McLendon Street
Ashburn, GA 31714
229-567-5041

The Turner County Christian Learning Center seeks a part-time teacher to lead Bible classes for middle school students from the Turner County Middle School. The classes will be taught off-site of the school campus. We are looking for someone who is very knowledgeable in the Bible and has experience in teaching youth. In addition, the applicant must be energetic and be able to present material in creative ways. As the Christian Learning Center grows, more hours may be available but are not guaranteed. Currently, we are seeking a teacher for 6th, 7th and 8th-grade classes.

Class schedule and holidays will follow the Turner County School calendar.

Hours per Day: There are currently three 60 min class periods. Classes meet three days on A week and two days on B week. However, the schedule may change according to when Connections classes are taught.

Salary: $100 to $125 a day, based on experience and travel distance. Other compensation may be considered for other duties performed outside of regular teaching and lesson preparation. We do NOT pay for annual leave, sick leave, school holidays, or whole-school testing dates.

Education Requirement: Four-year college degree.

Other Duties:

- The teacher must keep in contact with School Principal and Administration about testing and school schedule.
- The teacher will work with the school counselor to register kids for classes.
- The teacher will attend the open house at the beginning of each school year.
- The teacher will fill out a bi-weekly behavior report on students.
- The teacher will be required to turn in a teaching outline on the material they will cover with each class.

To apply for this position, you may pick up an application at First Baptist Church of Ashburn or print one at www.turnerclc.com. All applications must be returned to Jonathan Perry at First Baptist Church of Ashburn to be considered. The board will review all applications and will notify applicants selected for an interview.
